Are you called?

Do you desire to learn and experience a deeper spirituality? The Catholic spiritual tradition inspired by St. Teresa of Avila, St. John of the Cross, and St. Therese of Lisieux, explains how to live in a closer relationship with the living Christ and the practical caring for others that flows from this relationship. We are the Order of Discalced Carmelite Seculars (OCDS), men and women committed to living the fullness of God's love through prayer and scripture, with the aid and guidance of Our Lady. Did you know?

At school, bathrooms and cafeterias tend to have informal social rules that differ from those in the classroom. That is why parents should talk to their children about what to do in these settings, especially if bullying or some kind of abusive behavior is happening. Talk about what to do when a classmate says another student is not welcome to join a group at the lunch table, or what to do if another student engages in coercive behavior that puts someone else at risk. Dear Father, I thank You for our pastor leaders and church and the blessings they bring to the community. I pray that You will help them to walk in determination, steadfastness and endurance. Give them the strength to continue and bless them and their families.

Mirando al cielo presents the life of this young Mexican martyr, as a true example for today's youth and times we are living in. A 14-year-old teenager who is willing to give his life for the love of Jesus Christ and for his Church. A young man whose ideal was to get to heaven and his reason for living was to follow Jesus Christ. A film of love, betrayal and forgiveness, which shows us how behind every saint there is always the family and the life of prayer.

Mirando al cielo is a film that will question us from the first frame of its projection and will make us reflect on what is really important in our lives. During the religious persecution in Mexico, which took place between 1926-1928, men and women known as "Cristeros" took up arms to fight against the federal government of Plutarco Elías Calles, in defense of their faith.
